PREFACE

*Lord, you have assigned me my portion and my cup;
you have made my lot secure.
The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places:
surely I have a delightful inheritance.
Psalm 16:6*

Women who have been blessed to study The Five Aspects of Woman by Barbara Mouser are made aware of their secure lot and the pleasant places of their boundary lines. It is from the awareness of this delightful inheritance that The Jeweled Fountain has come forth.

I would like to thank Marti Palunas for doing the original formatting on Fountain and Kara Ruman for compiling the crossword puzzles, word searches, and adapting the personifications.

It is my hope and prayer that The Jeweled Fountain will be used by the Lord to strengthen His kingdom and further the work of ICGS.

She and her husband, John, have two children, Margaret and Alexander. They attend The Chapel in Akron and are grateful for the deeply-devoted team of Aspects facilitators there.

Barbara Mouser is a wife, mother of four daughters, and homemaker. She is the author of Five Aspects of Woman: A Biblical Theology of Femininity, Five Aspects of Femininity for Young Women, and co-author with her husband of The Story of Sex in Scripture. She earned the MABS degree from Dallas Theological Seminary, and serves as director of ICGS' women's ministry.

Dear Jeweled Fountain Students,

Your femininity is created to be like the beautiful fountain on the cover of this manual— many-tiered, graceful in shape, and flowing with sparkling water! God wants you to be just such a vessel, bejeweled, and pouring forth water that sparkles in the sunlight of God's love.

This Bible study has been written to help you understand who God created you to be. As you learn to know and obey God, He will enable you to fulfill the high and lovely purposes that He has for you now as a girl and later as a woman.

Let me explain the basic organization of our study. Our study is organized around the concept of a fountain with five tiers. The fountain that is you is represented by the fountain on the cover and by the line drawing on the inside cover.

A. The Image of The Jeweled Fountain

1. The base and the center of the fountain represent your image of God. This is your core personhood.
2. The water of the fountain represents your salvation given by Christ in the Holy Spirit. The Spirit of God flows through your created and redeemed being to give life, love, and glory to God and to all those whose lives you touch.
3. The five tiers represent aspects of your femininity. Just as our fountain has five tiers, our study will cover five facets or aspects of femininity. These tiers are based on specific things that God has said about the nature and identity of woman in the Bible. The colors of the pages are matched in each unit to the aspect being covered.
4. The fountain jewels represent virtues fundamental to each feminine aspect. Upon completion of each unit, the appropriate tier is decorated, and the "virtue jewels" are added.

B. Each tier of the fountain (or aspect) is covered in a unit of five lessons:

- The first two lessons explain how and why God designed this part of your femininity.
- The third lesson explains how sin and the curse have shattered this aspect.
- The fourth lesson explains how Christ restores what has been destroyed.
- The fifth lesson, called a Life Lesson, is your opportunity to review and apply the unit.

C. Recording Your Work

Your learning and memory work will be recorded with the help of three other images: Treasure Truths, the Open Bible, and the Treasure Chest of Your Heart. You will fill in and decorate these images as you complete the course.

- 40 Treasure Truths (index, pages 247-251):

The Bible is full of countless truths, insights, and commandments. Each lesson highlights two or three truths that you should treasure and live by as you grow into a mature woman of God. You will list these truths as you learn them on your "Open Bible" pages 264-265.

- Memory Verses to Hide in the Heart

Memory verses are provided for every lesson and virtue. You may record your progress in memorization by writing the Scripture references on page 266 and by placing jewels on 267.

D. Glossary

The Jeweled Fountain has a rather large word list in the back (pages 253-263). Use and enjoy it! It is full of words which will help you understand God, His work, and His plan for you!

One more thing—I was once a girl just your age. Wise women at my church helped me learn God's Word and encouraged me in godly femininity. For my part, I would like to dedicate this manual to one of these women.

The Jeweled Fountain is dedicated to
Mrs. La Verne Henley, Director of Girls' Auxiliary at First Baptist Church, Waxahachie, Texas, 1958-1966.

As a faithful Lady of Wisdom, she emphasized the memorization of Scripture and the importance of feminine godliness for many young girls.

May God bless you in your growth and study!

DAUGHTER OF THE KING

LESSON I.

DESIGNED BY GOD TO BE LIKE HIM

Life's big questions

Do you ever ask serious questions about your life? The deepest and most mysterious questions that have puzzled people since the beginning of time are questions like:

- "Who am I?"
- "Where did I come from?"
- "Why am I here?"

You are at an age when you will begin to ponder this kind of question. You might talk about questions like this with your family and close friends. As a girl, you will also be wondering, "Why are there males and females?" "What is a girl?" and "What is the meaning of femininity?"

Where will you look for answers?

1. Circle the two sources that you think would be best for answers. Underline the two sources that you think would be the worst.

the library	school	friends	movies
constitution	police	the Bible	the mall
God	music	traditions	grandparents
magazines	nature	parents	cartoons

ALL OF THE ABOVE people and places can give answers to these questions! The problem is that their answers differ from one another! How do you know who has the right and good answers to life's big questions?

How do I choose my authority?

2. You can go about choosing an authority for your life in lots of different ways. Of the ten ways suggested below, put a check by the two or three that you would choose first.

- ___ Call my friends and take a vote.
- ___ Do what I see on television.
- ___ Choose what makes me happy.
- ___ Ask my parents or grandparents to decide for me.
- ___ Find a good magazine and follow its suggestions.
- ___ Choose what the most popular girls do.
- ___ Follow the one that "feels" best.
- ___ Select the one that gives me the most attention.
- ___ Listen to my own heart.
- ___ Do what I've always done. I don't care about these questions!

Again, ALL OF THE ABOVE could be selected. The problem is that their responses are all different and may be unreliable as well! What should you do? Are you asking the right question? Maybe you should ask, "Where will I find dependable answers to these big questions?"

Where will I find dependable answers?

Have you ever heard the expression, "When all else fails, read the instructions"? Who provides instructions for the use of a product? You guessed it, the person who designed the product is the best person to give instructions.

3. With this in mind, answer the following questions:

- Who designed me? _____
- Has God provided an instruction manual for me? _____
- What is the name of that manual? _____

In the first two lessons about Daughter of the King, we will look at God's perfect design for you. To find out how He answers the big questions we have about life, we must turn to His instruction manual, the Bible.

In Genesis, the first book of the Bible, God has recorded how He went about creating the world. We will look at verses 26, 27, and 28, of Genesis chapter 1. These verses give the first account of the creation of man and woman on day six of creation. Let's read the passage:

Genesis 1:26-28

²⁶ Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth. ²⁷" So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. ²⁸ And God blessed them. And God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living thing that moves on the earth."

What's an image?

The following words or phrases in Genesis 1:26-28 are all important for understanding our identity and purpose: image, female, male, fruitful, image of God, subdue, earth. Right now, we will just consider the first word: "image."

image: a model, likeness, replica, or representation: Example: The statue was the image of a girl, the stuffed toy was in the image of a bear.

4. The picture below on the left is the picture of a rubber _____, not a real _____.
The woman in the picture on the right is holding the replica or model or image of a _____, not an actual _____.

The picture on page 3 is a statue or image of a _____. It is not a real _____.

You are a real girl who is an image of _____. You are not _____.

You are surrounded by images all the time. They represent people, places, things, and ideas.

5. Match the images in the left column with the related original in the right column.

Image	Original
____ What you see in the mirror	a. God
____ A stuffed toy dog	b. U.S.A.
____ Woman	c. A live dog
____ Statue of Liberty	d. You, yourself!
____ Portrait of George Washington	e. Liberty & freedom
____ Plastic Easter eggs	f. Real chicken eggs
____ The U.S. Flag	g. George Washington
____ Man

What you see in the mirror is not you, but a reflection of you. The Liberty Bell represents the ideals of liberty and freedom, etc. Can you see that an "image" is not the thing itself, but a representation of the original?

Men and women, boys and girls, are all people or persons. As persons, we are all made in the "image," or likeness of God, The Original Person! (This does NOT mean that we are all little gods!) This DOES mean that we have minds (we think), wills (we choose), and emotions (we feel). We are like God, the Original Thinker, Chooser, and Feeler.

This truth from Genesis 1:27 provides us with part of the answer to the "Who am I?" question. Humans are made in the "image of God." You are made in the image of God. You are patterned after Him, like the house in the picture on page 5 is modeled after a lifesize house.

Doesn't this make you want to find out more about God? The more you can find out about God's specific characteristics, the more you will know about yourself and all other human beings. You will find richer and deeper answers to the origin and identity question, "Who am I?"

What's an attribute?

Before we look at a list of God's "attributes," let us look at the definition of the word "attribute."

attribute: a characteristic basic to the nature of the one who possesses it.

6. Draw lines to match the attribute to the one who possesses it.

Attribute	Possessor
Black spots	Rose
Sour taste	Dalmatian dog
Curious nature	Cheetah
Speed	Bird
Beautiful fragrance	Monkey
Wings, feathers, and can fly	Lemon

Can you see how "attributes" are built into the nature of things? A lemon has a built-in sour taste. So "sour taste" is an attribute of a lemon. A lemon wouldn't be a lemon if it were not sour. You can count on a lemon to be sour! Lemons have always been sour and they always will be sour. Get the idea? Can this information about "lemon attributes" be used to understand something about God's "divine attributes"?

God's divine attributes

God's attributes are specific characteristics that are built in to His very nature. His attributes describe what He is like. We can count on Him to have them. He has always had them and He always will have them. What are some of God's attributes? What are the qualities that He has on which we can rely?

7. Match the attributes on the left with the correct definition on the right. If you need help, check the Glossary on page 255.

God's divine attributes

- ___ Righteous
- ___ Just
- ___ Sovereign
- ___ Loving
- ___ All knowing
- ___ All powerful
- ___ Unchanging
- ___ Eternal

Definitions of God's attributes

- a. He is without beginning or end.
- b. He is omniscient. He knows everything.
- c. He punishes evil and rewards good.
- d. He is omnipotent. He is almighty.
- e. He is always in control
- f. His character: basis of morality and law.
- g. He always does best for His creatures.
- h. His character is always the same.

Stop and read through the list of God's attributes. These are the attributes of the amazing Person you are created to be like! Just think, since God has attributes, and since you are made in the image of God, then you must have attributes as well! In what way do you reflect the glorious and incredible attributes of God? What are your human attributes?

My human attributes

8. Match the human attribute in column A with its definition in column B.

Human attributes	Definitions of human attributes
___ Conscience (right/wrong)	a. Character becomes fixed as we mature. (Count on Dad's honesty.)
___ Conscience (justice)	b. Capacity for love, grief, wonder (I just LOVE my family!)
___ Will	c. Capacity to change our world (Let's collect money for missions.)
___ Personality/heart	d. Built-in sense of justice (That's not FAIR!)
___ Mind	e. Ability to know (memory, logic....) (The square root of 81 is 9.)
___ Power	f. Built-in sense of right and wrong (How could you LIE to me?)
___ Character stability	g. With a beginning, but without end (When I'm in heaven....)
___ Immortality	h. Ability to make decisions and choices (I'm going to join the club.)

Do you see how God has designed you in His image? God knows everything; you can know some things. God makes the final choices in the universe; you make some choices. God is love itself; you can give and receive some love. God is all powerful; you have a little bit of power, etc. God, the Perfect Designer, made an excellent plan and brought forth a perfect creation.

Created in the image of God

9. Draw a line from the human attribute on the left to the attribute of God on the right which it reflects.

Human attributes

character stability

power

mind

immortality

conscience (sense of right and wrong)

conscience (sense of justice)

personality/heart

will

God's attributes

Righteous

Just

Sovereign

Unchanging

Love

All knowing

All powerful

Eternal

image of God: the stamp or outline of God upon every human being.

Humans are little copies of God because they are images or "models" of Him. To be more specific, the human attributes (such as mind, will, and conscience) are created as little replicas of God's great attributes (such as His all-knowing mind, His sovereign will, and His all righteous character).

Write your name on the following lines: I, _____ am made in the image of God. My nature reflects the Creator of the Universe. I am made to be like Him. My human attributes are little copies or replicas of God's divine attributes. This truth is the basis of my worth and value as a human being. It is also the basis of the value and worth of all the human beings around me whether they are rich or poor, old or young, pretty or plain.

Wrapping Up Lesson 1 about God's Image

Mining truth from God's Word

In each lesson of The Jeweled Fountain we will have a wrap-up section like this one in which we highlight the most important truths from that lesson. These teachings will be called Treasure Truths.

This week we have studied:

Treasure Truth #1: The Blessing of God's Image. The answer to the big question "Who am I?" is this: I am a creature in the image of God. I can think, choose, love, and make moral choices because I am a little replica of God. This "imagehood" is the foundation of my worth and value as a person.

Read over Treasure Truth #1 very carefully. Then write the name of Truth #1—The Blessing of God's Image—on page 264 to show that you have mined this truth from God's Word. When you complete this course, you will have learned (and listed) 40 precious truths from Scripture which will guide and bless you for the rest of your life!

Hiding treasure in your heart

God's Word is the treasure chest of all truth. When we memorize portions of Scripture we are storing up jewels that last forever. The Jeweled Fountain study provides at least one memory verse in the wrap-up section of each lesson. Our memory verse for this lesson is Genesis 1:27.

Genesis 1:27

*And God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him;
male and female He created them.*

If you have memorized Genesis 1:27, write this reference on page 266, and place a jewel in the treasure chest on page 267. Make, design, or purchase your jewels according to your own choice. Most scrapbook stores sell colorful sticker "jewels," or you might prefer to make your own. A suggestion is that you color-code your jewels. For example, make all the Daughter of the King jewels yellow and all the Lady-in-Waiting jewels blue and so forth.

Words are truth nuggets

attribute, divine attributes, human attributes, image, image of God

Pearls to ponder

In Mark 12:13-17, Jesus told his disciples that they should pay Caesar tax in the form of a coin that had Caesar's image stamped on it. Jesus put it this way: "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's." What has God's image stamped upon it that should be rendered to Him?

LESSON 2.

DESIGNED BY GOD TO RULE HIS WORLD

The next big question

Now you know the answer to the question, "Who am I?"

1. You are a girl in the _____ of God, made to be a little replica of God Himself. Now that you know that, your next question should be, "Why am I here?" Once again, you will need to consult the Creator's Instruction Manual.

The first commands of God

2. Look carefully at Genesis 1:28. Here are the exact words that God spoke to Adam and Woman on the first day of their creation. Fill in the missing words from memory if you can; or look on page 5 for help.

Genesis 1:28

²⁸ And God blessed them; and God said to them, "Be _____ and _____, and fill the _____, and _____ it; and _____ over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the sky, and over every living thing that moves on the _____."

This verse is such an important verse in the Bible it has its own name. It is called the "World Mandate." What does this mean? A mandate is a command given by a superior to a representative authorizing him to act. You can clearly see that God is the ultimate superior and He has given us human beings the command to rule the whole earth.

World Mandate: God's authoritative command that man and woman rule, subdue, and multiply over the whole earth, as stated in Genesis 1:28. This is God's first and basic command to human beings.

Think of all the things God could have commanded man and woman to do first: love, worship, preach, behave themselves, or invite the angels over for dinner! However, none of these were His first order to mankind. His first command was for them to rule the earth for Him.

Just think, God could have stayed and ruled the earth Himself. Some people say, "If you want something done right, you have to do it yourself." God didn't say that or do that. He created man and woman and they were very good. He gave them all the tools (attributes) they would need to accomplish their jobs. They had minds, will, power, consciences, and they would live forever. God designed them to be His representatives, as creatures fully in His image, and gave them the command and authority to rule the earth. If you look closely, you will spot three basic commands in Genesis 1:28: RULE, SUBDUE, BE FRUITFUL.

3. The six words listed below are very important. They help answer both the question, "Who am I?" and the question, "Why am I here?" Match the word on the left with its definition on the right.

- | | |
|-------------------------|---|
| ___ image | a. Humans are little models of God |
| ___ rule | b. To make decisions using one's authority, like a king might |
| ___ image of God | c. Productive, creating value and wealth |
| ___ fruitful | d. Model, replica, a representation |
| ___ subdue | e. Bring and keep under control |
| ___ earth | f. The domain of mankind |

Ruling, subduing, and being fruitful

4. Read the following examples and fill in the blanks with these words: ruling, subduing, productive.

- Evie needed to earn some money. She decided to work for her uncle in his large vegetable garden. Evie is _____ her domain.
- Maggie was so pleased with the bracelet that she beaded, she made more for all her cousins. Maggie is being _____.
- Kiri cleaned her room and is keeping it neat by hanging up her clothes every day after school. Kiri is _____ her domain.

5. Write the definitions of the following three terms again in order to get them firmly in mind. If you need help, check the Glossary in the back of this handbook.

Rule _____

Subdue _____

Be Fruitful _____

God created this amazing world, made us His representatives, and said, "Here. You rule it, subdue it, and make it fruitful." He gave us responsibility for the world in which we were made to live. By creating us in His image, He has made us capable of making the choices and doing the work necessary to rule for Him.

Since creation, mankind has explored and mapped all the earth. Vast knowledge about God's creation has been accumulated. Countless arts, sciences, crafts, and technologies have been developed. Lots of ruling, subduing, and being fruitful has already gone on. History is not over, though, and God has not withdrawn His command.

6. The answer to the question, "Why am I here?" is:

I, _____ am here
 (your name)
 to _____, _____, and be productive for God on the _____.

What is my domain?

You have had to write the word "earth" a number of times. Don't get overwhelmed! God does not expect you to rule the entire earth!

But, believe it or not, you do have a little portion of the earth to rule.

It is like having a little realm or kingdom all your own. We are going to call this little kingdom your "domain." Your "domain" will get larger over the course of your lifetime. It will change and grow, but it will always be your very own responsibility and nobody else's.

7. See if you can identify parts of your domain. Circle those that are a part your domain. Put an "X" through those that are not in your domain.

My relationship with God	My money	My friend's relationship with her brother
My homework	My "Stuff"	My body & personal cleanliness
The way my sister dresses	The words I speak	My mother's attitude towards me
My brother's chores	My closets/drawers	The words spoken to me by others
My response to criticism

Can you see how easy it might be to try to rule SOMEONE ELSE'S domain? Has anyone ever tried to rule YOUR domain? You can be sure that God wants us all to tend to our own business. So that you can do just that, let's look specifically at your domain.

Domain inventory

8. Below is a list of some areas that are part of your world. Take the time to list parts of each area that are in your personal domain. A sample is provided in parenthesis for each area below.

Walk with God (for example, prayer life)

Relationships (for example, with family)

Talents/Abilities (artistic ability)

My Femininity (my female-ness)

Body (cleanliness)

School (meeting deadlines)

Words (kindness)

Time (priorities)

Responsible to God

How seriously does God take the responsibility He has given you? Look in your Bible. Fill in the blanks to complete 2 Corinthians 5:10.

2 Corinthians 5:10

¹⁰For we must _____ appear before the _____ of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for _____ in the body, whether good or evil.

Responsible: trustworthy; able to give an account for one's actions.

The verse above tells us that God takes these responsibilities very seriously! This verse also tells us that we will have to answer to Him one day for the way we have ruled, subdued, and been fruitful in our domains.

No one else can rule your domain for you. No one else is responsible for it but you. One day you will stand face to face with the One who created you. You will answer for what you did during this year, during this course, and during your whole lifetime. When you responsibly accept your image from God and fruitfully rule in your domain, God's reflection shines in you. He gets the glory, and in the deepest part of your being you find yourself in Him.

Here is a short list that describes a Daughter of the King. Circle two characteristics that you want to build up in your image of God.

diligent decisive dependable determined eager efficient organized persevering responsible

Big questions answered!

Well done! You have completed an important lesson. The big ideas are (fill in the blanks):

- I am created in God's _____.
- I am created to rule on this _____.
- I have a personal _____ to rule for God.

Wrapping Up Lesson 2 about My Purpose

Mining truth from God's Word

This week you have studied:

Treasure Truth #2: Clarity of Purpose. The answer to the big question "Why am I here?" is this: I am created to rule, subdue, and be fruitful on the earth for God. This is the first command that God has given to me as a human being.

Treasure Truth #3: A Unique Domain. I have a specific domain in time and space to rule for God. No one before or after you has had or will have this particular stewardship. The fact that I have this special and personal trust from God is a great treasure.

Write the names of Truths #2 and #3 on your Open Bible, page 264, to show that you have mined these truths from God's Word.

Hiding treasure in your heart

Genesis 1:28

*And God blessed them. And God said to them,
"Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living thing that moves on the earth."*

If you have memorized Genesis 1:28, write this reference on page 266, and place a jewel in the treasure chest on page 267.

Words are truth nuggets

World Mandate, rule, subdue, be fruitful, productive, domain

Pearls to ponder

Now write one sentence explaining why having your own personal and unique domain is such an honor.

DAUGHTER OF THE KING

LESSON 3. BROKEN BY SIN AND THE CURSE

What's wrong with everything?

In the first two lessons, you saw that God created humans and the earth to be "very good". But now we see lots of no-so-good things in God's world.

1. Match the item on the left with its eventual destination or status in the column on the right.

Item	Destination
a. Flower garden	Illness
b. Clean room	Pencil stub
c. Ponytail band	Messy room
d. Pencil	Weed bed
e. Health	Death
f. Life	Broken piece of elastic
g. Remembering	Forgetting

What's going on in this world? Why do things get messy, wear out, decay, break, die, and waste away? Does it ever seem as if your "domain" is working against you? You are trying so hard to rule and be productive, but THINGS JUST AREN'T COOPERATING!!! What's happening to God's "very good" design?

True to His loving nature, God has not left us without answers to these questions. Let's look at our Instruction Manual. Genesis 2 and 3 hold the answer to these questions. We will be doing a skit based on these chapters. In preparation, read through the following verses carefully.

Genesis 2: 16-17

¹⁶And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, "You may surely eat of every tree of the garden, ¹⁷but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die." . . .

Genesis 3:17-19

¹⁷ Then to Adam He said, "Because you have listened to the voice of your wife, and have eaten from the tree about which I commanded you, saying, 'You shall not eat from it'; cursed is the ground because of you; in toil you will eat of it all the days of your life. ¹⁸ Both thorns and thistles it shall grow for you; and you will eat the plants of the field; ¹⁹ By the sweat of your face you will eat bread, till you return to the ground, because from it you were taken; for you are dust, and to dust you shall return."

Adam and Eve are the only humans to have experienced God's creation in its "very good" state. It is hard for us to imagine, but they lived in a garden without weeds, without droughts or storms, without harmful insects. Creation tended toward life and fruitfulness, not destruction and death. Food was readily available, just by picking it. Their relationships with one another and with God were perfect. They had the privilege of walking and talking with Him every day. But, with every privilege comes responsibility. Adam and Eve had the responsibility to obey God by not eating of one tree in the garden. They chose to disobey.

Fountain Films: The story of creation in three acts

Act out the story of Creation, the Fall, and the Curse, pantomiming the events and using the dialogue on the following pages. You will need to assign the roles of narrator, God, Adam, the woman, and the serpent for each section. This activity should only take about two minutes for each section.

The point is to understand the sequence of events and the specifics of the words, not to have a Hollywood production.

2. Read the dialogue exactly as given. Resist the "temptation" to use your own words.

Act I: CREATION

Cast: Narrator, God, Adam, woman

NARRATOR (Actresses can pantomime the action as the narrator describes it.)

- God creates the world in six days.
- On the sixth day, God creates the first man, Adam, from dust.
- God brings Adam to the garden, and tells him:

GOD: "From any tree in the garden you may eat freely; but from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in that day you eat from it you will surely die."

NARRATOR: (Keep pantomiming, every time the narrator describes action.)

- On the sixth day, God creates another person from Adam's side.
- Adam names the person:

ADAM: "she shall be called 'woman,' for she was taken out of man."

NARRATOR: God gives Adam and the woman their jobs:

GOD: "Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the sky and over every living creature that moves on the earth."

NARRATOR: God looked at all that He had made and saw that it was...

GOD: "VERY GOOD"

NARRATOR: On the seventh day, God rested.

Act II: THE FALL

Cast: Narrator, serpent, woman, Adam, God

NARRATOR: The crafty serpent approaches the woman and asks:

SERPENT: "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from any tree in the garden?'"

NARRATOR: The woman misquotes God's words by answering:

WOMAN: "We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden, but God did say, 'You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die.'"

SERPENT: "You will not surely die. For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."

NARRATOR: (Are you remembering to act this out?)

- The woman eats the fruit and gives some to Adam, who is with her, and he eats it.
- Adam and the woman realize that they are naked, and they try to cover themselves with clothes they make out of fig leaves.
- God comes walking in the garden, at His usual time.
- Adam and the woman do an unusual thing: they hide from God in fear. God called to the man:

GOD: "Where are you?"

ADAM: "I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid."
GOD: "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?"
ADAM: "The woman you put here with me—she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it."
GOD: (To the woman) "What is this that you have done?"
WOMAN: "The serpent deceived me, and I ate it."

ACT III: THE CURSE

Cast: Narrator, God, serpent, woman, Adam

NARRATOR: The LORD God said to the serpent,
GOD: "Because you have done this, Cursed are you above all the livestock, and all the wild animals! You will crawl on your belly and you will eat dust all the days of your life. And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel."
NARRATOR: And God said to the woman:
GOD: "I will greatly increase your pain in childbearing; with pain you will give birth to children. Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you."
NARRATOR: To Adam he said,
GOD: "Because you listened to your wife and ate from the tree about which I commanded you, 'You must not eat of it,' cursed is the ground because of you; through painful toil you will eat of it all the days of your life. It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the field. By the sweat of your brow you will eat your food until you return to the ground, since from it you were taken; for dust you are and to dust you will return."
NARRATOR: Adam named his wife Eve, because she would become the mother of all the living.

The End

In this account in Genesis God gives us the answer to our question, "What is wrong with everything?" At the beginning of time, man and woman rebelled against God the King. Because of that rebellion, all of humanity, this planet, and the whole universe have been changed ever since.

Think back to Lesson 1 and the section entitled "God's divine attributes." Remember God's attribute of justice? He is just, He has always been just, and He always will be just. God told Adam that if Adam ate from the tree he would surely die. Adam ate anyway. In justice, God kept His word, and Adam experienced death.

Two important moments in history

In our dramatization, there were two words that were the titles of Acts II & III of your play. Go back and find them. They are also the titles of two important moments in human history.

3. Write these words next to their definitions:

- a. Adam's choice to disobey God by eating of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thus earning death. This is called the _____.
- b. The series of judgments pronounced by God upon Satan, woman, man, and thus, the whole creation. This judgment has a beginning and an end. It is called the _____.

4. When Adam fell, the whole creation fell with him. Everything in our world including the plants and animals get sick and die. The picture to the right illustrates that the whole world _____ with Adam.

"The Curse" contains a series of very specific judgments, pronounced by God. Use the following exercise to learn the details. Refer to verses 14-19 of Genesis 3, or the text of Act III of your play, if you need help.

Details of the curse

4. Place the appropriate letter on the space in front of the person on whom the curse is pronounced.

S = Serpent: includes Satan (the angel) and the snake (the reptile)

W = woman M = man

- _____ The ground will yield thorns and thistles (non-productive plants).
- _____ Reptiles are changed physically.
- _____ The ground is cursed.
- _____ Childbearing will be painful.
- _____ Serpent's head will be crushed by a man who is woman's seed.
- _____ Obtaining edible food (bread) will require toilsome labor.
- _____ The man/woman relationship will become a struggle to see who will be in charge.
- _____ Satan will eventually be defeated.
- _____ Man will die (as will his wife and children after him).

physical death: the separation of the human spirit and the human body such that the body decays and returns to the dust.

spiritual death: the separation of the human spirit from the life of God which is in Christ (1 John 5:12); the Bible speaks of us being dead in our trespasses and sins. The second death is to be separated from God forever (Rev. 20:14-15).

My image of God is broken

You have seen how the things around you (your physical domain) rebel against you, tending toward disorder and death. (Clothes don't hang THEMSELVES in the closet!) But what has happened to your nature, the "image of God" that is in you? Take a look at Galatians 5 for a list of what Paul calls the "deeds of the flesh."

deeds of the flesh: the sinful actions that are characteristic of the old sin nature such as immorality, impurity, idolatry, strife, anger, envy, etc.

5. Take a pen or a highlighter and circle or highlight the 15 "deeds of the flesh" listed in the verse on the next page.

Galatians 5:19-21

¹⁹Now the deeds of the flesh are evident, which are: immorality, impurity, sensuality, ²⁰idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, disputes, dissensions, factions, ²¹envying, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these, of which I forewarn you, just as I have forewarned you, that those who practice these things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

Do "jealousy," "strife," "outbursts of anger," and "disputes" sound like part of the perfect design that God said was, "very good"? It is sad to see our domains aren't the only things that are cursed.

Our very natures are cursed as well! Since the Fall, we still reflect the image of God, but now that image has been corrupted by sin. We have all died spiritually through Adam. Sin separates us from God. Since our spirits cannot live without Him, God was right when He said, "you will surely die."

sin nature, old sin nature, or "the flesh:" the terms the Bible uses to describe the sinful nature of human beings since the fall of Adam. Fallen human beings are not basically good. They are basically sinful.

Sins that shatter God's image in me

6. Match the consequences of sin on our human attributes to the quote that illustrates it in the columns below.

- | | |
|-------------------------------|---|
| a. Conscience now dull | ___ "I don't feel one bit sorry for HER!" |
| b. Will now rebellious | ___ "Everybody cheats for better grades!" |
| c. Mind now dark | ___ "I'm going to do it ANYWAY!" |
| d. Heart now hard | ___ "Bible study? Not important!" |

Is your conscience numb to lies or unkindness, gossip or disrespect?

Is your will rebellious to authority figures?

Is your mind darkened to wholesome creativity or virtuous imagination?

Is your heart hardened or without compassion?

Recognizing sinful femininity in myself

There's hope! In the next lesson, Daughter of the King, Restored by Christ, you will see what God has done to make you His daughter again. But before we begin that lesson, take a look at the list of "Sins that shatter my rule." It is true that the entire world is cursed, and your domain is rebelling against you. But it is important to realize that your own sinfulness works against you, too.

7. Turn back to the front of this lesson on page 17. Study the picture of the girl and her domain.
- How would you describe her attitude? _____
 - How would you describe her domain? _____
 - What do you think the relationship is between her attitude and the condition of her domain?

When it comes to domain ruling, sinful femininity can act like a "Lazy Lucy," or a "Bossy Bella." God gives us clear examples of these two types in the Bible with the stories of Lot's wife (the Lazy Lucy) and Jezebel (the Bossy Bella). Do the exercise below to see which one you tend to be.

Sins that shatter my rule

8. Using the list below, find and circle or highlight the sins that might be yours.

Lazy Lucy

Lets "somebody else" do it
Wastes time
Is bored
Uses energy trying to look busy
Dabbles instead of producing
Expects others to entertain her
Is lazy
Puts things off for another day
Can't make a decision
Wheedles to get out of work
Quits projects and groups

Bossy Bella

Does not let anybody else do it
Rules for self instead of for God
Must win at all costs
Has to get her own way
Is bossy
Wants attention and glory for herself
Has to be first all the time
Needs to be best all the time
Unable to give others credit
Only involved if in charge
Whines to get her way

Are you a "Lucy" or a "Bella"?

You can see how your nature, as well as your domain, is all messed up. In the next lesson, you will see how God has a plan to help you overcome these sins.

The big ideas!

9. Fill in the blanks to summarize the big ideas of this lesson.

- Adam chose to _____ against God, causing our whole race to fall.
- God _____ the work that He gave men and women to do.
- Now, my personal _____ of God is corrupted, and my _____ rebels against me like I rebel against God.

Wrapping Up Lesson 3 on the Fall and the Curse

Mining truth from God's Word

This week you have studied Treasure Truth #4.

Treasure Truth #4: The Fall and the Curse. The Bible gives the only true answer to the question, "What is wrong with us and our world?" The root of evil is rebellion against God. Our first father Adam disobeyed God and brought a curse of death and corruption on our world and upon all people.

Write the name of Treasure Truth #4 on page 264 to show that you have mined this truth from God's Word.

Hiding treasure in your heart

Galatians 6:7

Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap.

If you have memorized Galatians 6:7, record the reference on page 266, and place a jewel in the treasure chest on page 267.

Words are truth nuggets

the fall, the curse, the deeds of the flesh

Pearls to ponder

Surely there are no jewels in this lesson! The fall and the curse are catastrophes! They have made everything broken and ugly! Don't be too quick to judge. Blessings flow from the fall and the curse. Of the four statements below, circle the number of the ones that contain precious truths that flow from the fall and the curse.

1. Adam and Eve were sinners from the very beginning.
2. The curse is something placed on creation by God at a specific time. One day in the future He will remove the curse. Then suffering and sorrow will be no more.
3. History has always contained death, suffering, and evil; and, it always will.
4. The fall and the curse are God's explanation for what is wrong with us and our world. The good news is He has offered us a cure for our sin and its consequences.

DAUGHTER OF THE KING

LESSON 4. RESTORED BY CHRIST

Bought from slavery

In the last lesson, we learned that although we were created to be like God, we have become broken and sinful slaves instead. Read the following verses from Galatians to learn what enslaves sinners. Two things are listed.

1. What are they? _____

Galatians 4:3-5

³In the same way we also, when we were children, were enslaved to the elementary principles of the world. ⁴ But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, ⁵ to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons.

"The elementary principles of the world" is a pretty good way to describe the fall and the curse, don't you think? We are enslaved by these principles just as we learned from Genesis in the last lesson. We are also enslaved by "the law" because our hardened hearts and calloused consciences just can't obey God's law.

But God sent His Son to redeem us from this slavery. Look in the Glossary in the back of this manual (page 260) and find the definition for the word "redeem." Write that definition here.

2. Redeem means _____

Princess by adoption

That God would buy us out of slavery is amazing, but there is more! God buys us from sin so He can adopt as His children! Looking again at Galatians 4:3-5, fill in the blanks below:

3. But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his _____, born of woman, born under the law, to _____ those who were under the law, so that we might receive _____ as sons.

God's plan is called "salvation." "Salvation" means everything that God has done in the past, is now doing, and will do in the future to secure our life with Him.

children of God: those who are born by a spiritual miracle worked by God to make sinners His true sons and daughters.

Refer to John 1:12-13 below. Circle the answer to this question: To whom did God give the right to become children of God?

John 1: 12-13

¹²But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, ¹³who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

You can be restored to your created role as a child of God by "receiving" Christ!

4. Refer to Romans 8:15-16 to fill in the blanks below.

Romans 8: 15-16

¹⁵For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" ¹⁶The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God,

- The spirit of _____ leads to fear.
- The spirit of _____ allows us to call God, "Abba! Father!" ("Abba" means "Daddy" in Hebrew)
- The Holy Spirit reassures our spirit that we are _____.

spirit of adoption: the knowledge and confidence that God is our true Father upon whom we may depend for help and care.

God has found a way to adopt you, (spiritually dead slave that you are), and make you His true daughter and heir. Before salvation, your image of God is torn, crumpled, and labeled "Slave." Once you are adopted by Him, you are His true child. You keep growing to resemble Him more and more. You are the heir to His kingdom and can claim the title "Princess."

God's plan of salvation

5. Use the passage from Ephesians printed below and follow the directions to find out for yourself what God tells us in the Bible about His salvation plan.

- Verse 4 tells us God's reason for His relationship with us. Circle it in red.
- Verse 7 shows us God's plan and purpose. Underline it in green.
- We (can /cannot) be saved by our own efforts or good works.
- Verses 5-9 explain at least four things that God does for us when He saves us. Write these down.

Ephesians 2: 4-10

⁴But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, ⁵even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— ⁶and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, ⁷so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. ⁸For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, ⁹not a result of works, so that no one may boast. ¹⁰For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

faith: trusting God to be dependable and true to His Word even when outcomes are unseen.

Believing is receiving

If God is the one who does the work of saving you, is there anything you need to do in this process?

6. Salvation is a gift. We don't work for it, but we do receive it. Look again on page 28 and read John 1:12. Who are the ones who have the right to become the children of God?

One time after an earthquake, a very frightened jailer asked the Silas and the Apostle Paul, "What must I do to be saved?" Their answer was very short and clear, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household." Acts 16:30-31.

When a sinner admits her sin to God and believes in Christ as the Savior, then the God of the universe, her King and Creator, becomes her Father!

This adoption and new birth is a one-time event. It is the foundation and beginning of your whole Christian life. Just as your physical birth was a one-time event that began your life on earth, being spiritually reborn is a one-time event which begins all the rest of your life for eternity.

adoption: 1) the legal process by which a parent makes an orphan or one not his biological child his true child with all rights and privileges; 2) the voluntary act of God whereby He makes repentant sinners His sons and daughters and heirs of eternal life.

What is your status?

7. Have you come to realize your need for Someone to change you from being a sinful and soiled "slave" into a girl who is truly human?

a. Have you accepted the love gift Jesus offers of new life for your spirit? If you have done this before today, write a brief summary on the lines below of how and when you received Christ. Even if you do not remember the specific hour or day, explain how you are sure that you have made this decision.

b. If you have never accepted Christ's gift of salvation, and you would like to receive this gift, talk with your mentor or a Christian you trust. Once you have been guided through this decision, explain in a few words what your decision is. Then sign and date this commitment.

Adopted Princess (your name)

c. If you have never accepted Christ's gift of salvation, and you are not sure that you are ready to do this, you can make that decision another time. When you are ready, talk with you mentor or another Christian. At that time, write about your decision in the above space. Then sign and date this statement so you will have a record of this very important decision.

Princess power for living

This study course is called The Jeweled Fountain. As we explained in the Preface, the base and pillar of your fountain represent your image of God. The five tiers represent different aspects of your femininity. What else can we observe about a fountain?

Consider the two fountains below. What is the main difference in these two fountains?

Without a commitment to receive Christ, you will be busy building the framework of a fountain, but there will be no water running through it. Your life might look like a fountain, and be decorated like a fountain, but it will not be able to refresh or renew anyone. You will not be able to sparkle and bubble with the life that flows from Christ!

As a daughter of the King, you have a job. Look back at Ephesians 2:10 on page 29. Circle what it is that God has "prepared beforehand" for you to do.

Remember that these are not "good works" to earn your place with God. (Jesus has already earned that for you on the cross.) These are "good works" that God has planned for you to accomplish. These "good works" are your tribute to the King and your responsibility to your domain.

As a restored princess, you now have:

- Authority to rule, because you are a true daughter of God, your Father, the King.
- Capacity to rule, because a new re-born spirit now indwells your mind, will, and emotions.
- Power to rule because you know the amazing fullness of God's love.

Sounds like a fairy tale

God's plan sounds just too good to be true! But it is true. And there is more to the story! Use the passage below from Corinthians to uncover more truths from God.

8. Draw a circle around the words that describe what your body in this life is like. Underline what the body of a believer will be like in the next life.

⁴²So is it with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable; what is raised is imperishable. ⁴³It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. ⁴⁴It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. ⁴⁵Thus it is written, "The first man Adam became a living being"; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. . . .

⁴⁹Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we shall also bear the image of the man of heaven.

9. Fill in the blanks to tell what happens in these stories:

The _____ awakens Sleeping Beauty with a _____ .

Cinderella gets to go to the _____ where she meets the _____ .

Snow White is resurrected from a death-like sleep by a _____ from the _____ .

These fairy tales are only stories, but lost parents, wicked queens, poison apples, horrible curses, and miraculous princes are more "real" than you might think. If you are human and if you are a Christian, the following sentences are true about you even though they sound like a fairy tale.

10. Write a sentence or two about the ideas provided on page 33, using facts from your own life to write your own "Princess Story."

Once Upon a Time...

I was born into a slave family. (my natural birth, dead in Adam)

This is how it happened that the King adopted me. (My salvation in Christ)

Now that I'm a princess, my realm is expanded. (Domain I rule for Christ)

An evil lord hates me. (The World, the flesh, and the Devil are against me.)

I do not have to rule my domain alone. My Father the King provides help. (for example, Scripture, Holy Spirit, fellowship, hope of heaven, etc.)

I am looking forward to living happily ever after in my Father's palace. "I am especially looking forward to heaven because . . .

Welcome to God's royal family, Princess! You have just completed Daughter of the King, restored by Christ. You understand God's plan for salvation and how important it is to root your identity and security in your Heavenly Father.

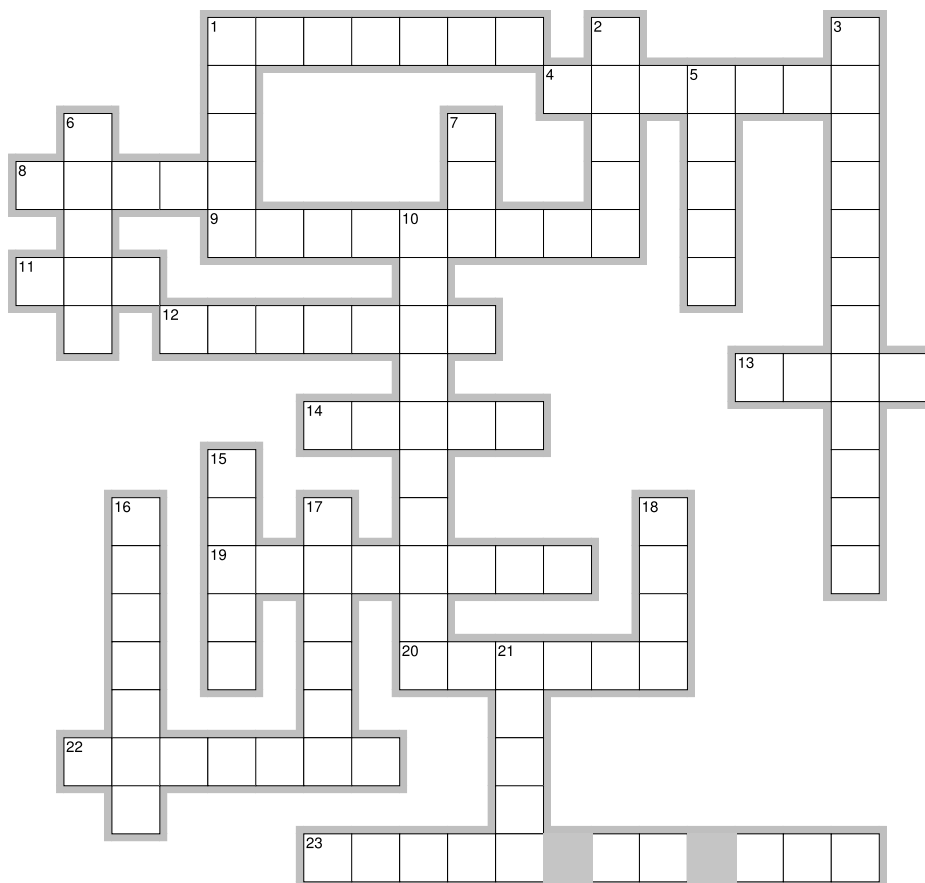

The big ideas!

The big ideas that we have covered in the Daughter of the King aspect are:

- By receiving Christ, I am adopted by God as His true child.
- By obeying Christ, I can become the regal and responsible ruler of my domain.
- In Christ's reward, my domain and I will one day be gloriously redeemed.

True "princess power" is based on knowing the love of God our Father and King.

Wrapping Up Lesson 4 about Salvation

Mining truth from God's Word

This week you have studied Treasure Truths #5 and #6.

Treasure Truth #5: Adopted by my Father. God has freely offered us salvation in His Son Jesus because of His great mercy, grace, and love. When a girl receives Christ, she is adopted as God's own daughter and heir.

Treasure Truth #6: Power to be a Princess. When a girl is saved from slavery to sin, she receives the power and capacity to rule her domain for God as He always intended.

Record the names of Treasure Truths #5 and #6 on page 264 to show that you have mined these truths from God's Word.

Hiding treasure in your heart

Ephesians 2:4-6

⁴But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, ⁵even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ— by grace you have been saved— ⁶and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,

If you have memorized Ephesians 2:4-6, record this Scripture reference on page 266 and place a jewel in the treasure chest on page 267.

Words are truth nuggets

redeem, adoption, spirit of adoption, salvation, faith

Pearls to ponder

The jewels in this lesson are not disguised! They are huge and spectacular! Salvation is the greatest gift we can receive as fallen creatures.

Thought questions

When Adam fell, the whole world (indeed the universe) fell with Him. Is the opposite true? When mankind is saved, will the whole creation be restored as well? (Consider the picture to the left for a clue and Romans 8:20-21 for the answer.)

LESSON 5.
DAUGHTER OF THE KING
LIFE LESSON

Character profile

What does a Daughter of the King look like?

Time for some "detective" work. Here is a Daughter of the King profile and some exercises to help you "see" this aspect all around you. Can you spot girls or women in these roles who possess these character traits?

Basis of the Daughter of the King

Woman is created in God's image to rule the earth.

Roles of Daughter of the King

Ruler, subduer, producer, caretaker of God's creation, manager, conqueror

Characteristics of Daughter of the King responsible, decisive, dependable, determined, eager, efficient, organized, persevering

Daughters of the King in my life

You are surrounded by women: mothers, grandmothers, aunts, teachers, neighbors, friends, babysitters, hairdressers, etc. Think of all the women you know. Which ones have characteristics of a Daughter of the King?

1. Write the name of a girl or woman you know who exemplifies each quality next to that quality.

Responsible	_____	Diligent	_____
Decisive	_____	Organized	_____
Dependable	_____	Persevering	_____
Determined	_____	Eager	_____

2. Write a thank you note to one of the persons you listed, expressing gratitude for displaying this quality so well. Place a star next to the person you chose.

Date note written: _____

Daughters of the King in the Bible

The Bible gives us many examples of women who have ruled their domains well for God. After He had gifted them and prepared them to do good works for Him, these women obediently ruled and subdued within their own circumstances, being fruitful for the Lord.

3. See if you can match these 17 women and girls with the "good works" God prepared for them to do. Check the Bible passage reference if you get stuck.

Passage	Name	How she ruled for God
1. Genesis 17:16	Sarah	_____ served in the temple
2. Genesis 30:20	Leah	_____ was a seamstress
3. Exodus 1:15-21	Shiphrah and Puah	_____ gleaned food for family
4. Exodus 2:16	daughters of Midian	_____ diplomatic mission to Solomon
5. Exodus 1:7-9	Miriam	_____ obeyed Uncle Mordecai
6. Joshua 2:6	Rahab	_____ midwives to Hebrew women

Daughters of the King in fame and shame

4. History, books, and films are filled with examples of Daughters of the King. On the following scroll, list examples of famous girls and women and how they have demonstrated the admirable qualities of a Daughter of the King. Here are some examples to get you started.

Historical Hall of Fame - Joan of Arc pursued her cause until death.

Literary Hall of Fame - Lucy in The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe was independent and determined to find Narnia, even when her brothers and sister made fun of her.

Video & Movie Hall of Fame - The mother in Swiss Family Robinson used what she had to subdue her domain.

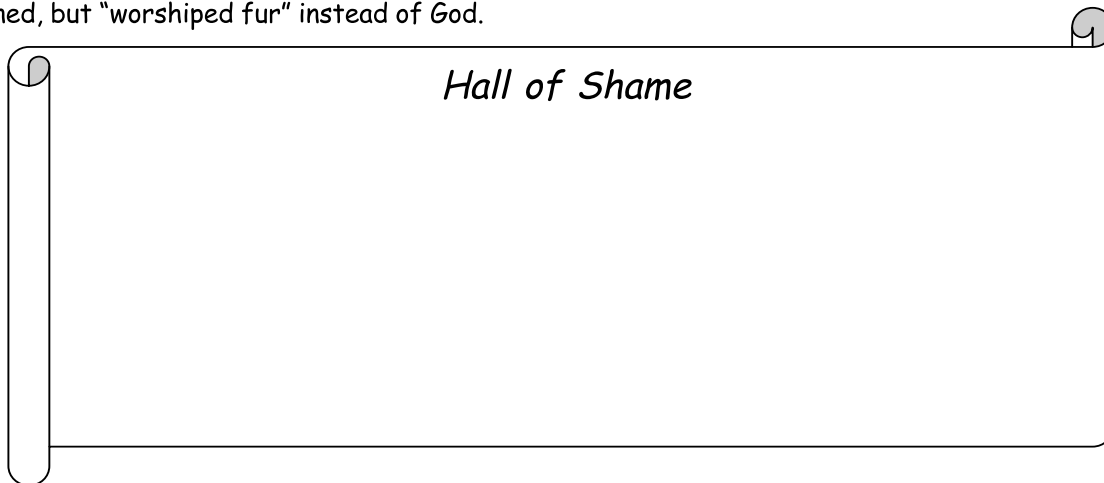

5. List people who demonstrate these qualities in their fallen state for your Daughter of the King, Halls of Shame.

Biblical Hall of Shame - Jezebel ruled with determination and efficiency, but served false gods.

Historical Hall of Shame - Mary Tudor, Queen of England, ruled Britain with such a bloody regime, her nickname was "Bloody Mary."

Literary Hall of Shame - Instead of tending to her duties, Chicken Little ran around hollering, "The sky is falling!" and causing all kinds of confusion.

Video & Movie Hall of Shame - Cruella DeVille in 101 Dalmatians was efficient, decisive, and determined, but "worshipped fur" instead of God.

YOUR JEWELLED FOUNTAIN

TIER ONE

DAUGHTER OF THE KING

The Daughter of the King Tier of Your Jeweled Fountain

It is time to begin decorating your "Jeweled Fountain." On the inside front of your handbook is a simple drawing of a fountain. This fountain represents you and your femininity as God has created it to be. The "jewels" of your fountain are the virtues that adorn your femininity. Your "virtue verses" are listed below. Memorize and meditate on these verses as you decorate your fountain.

The Jewel of faith

Romans 5:1 Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Jewel of responsibility

2 Corinthians 5:10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil.

The first tier of your fountain on the inside cover represents the Daughter of the King aspect. Only decorate the bottom tier of the fountain this time because it represents the aspect we have studied in this unit. The color for Daughter of the King is yellow. Yellow is the color of the sun in its power. As Daughters of the King, we walk in the light of God our Father and rule our domains with the power He provides. The adorning jewels are obedience and responsibility. There is a list of characteristics and roles for this aspect on page 1 of this lesson.

These colors and ideas can be used to embellish and "illuminate" your fountain. You can use colored pencils, markers, gel pens, mosaics, any type of technique you would like, to place the "jewels" on the bottom tier of your fountain. By the time you have completed this year's course, your fountain (and you!) should be beautifully adorned!
